

Alumni Notes

'69

Bruce Petterson is a paramedic retired from the Town of Palm Beach Fire-Rescue Department. He lives in North Palm Beach and has three children, Chris 17, Eric 14, and Katie 12, who attend The Benjamin School. After retiring he worked as a massage therapist at the Hippocrates Health Institute in West Palm Beach, a living foods retreat for people with health challenges. He is currently studying complimentary healing techniques as a junior in the four year BS program at the Barbara Brennan School of Healing in Miami. He also teaches survival swimming to children aged 6 months to 6 years as an Infant Swimming Resource instructor locally.

Bruce Petterson

'70

After thirty-one years with the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office, Terry Rowe retired on May 31. Prior to his retirement he was the Major in charge of Investigations, which consisted of Robbery/Homicide, Organized Crime, Special Investigations Unit, Court Services Bureau, and Technical Services. He will do consulting work and plans to enjoy his free time.

'86

Dinah Steward completed U.S. Air Force Basic Training in February 2002 and went immediately to the Heritage of America Band at Langley Air Force Base in Hampton VA as a vocal soloist. She toured with the band for three years, and just finished a tour in February. Dinah has been singing in the area a bit, but is ready for a change. She plans to move to NYC sometime around the New Year to try her hand at "making it" in the big city. Dinah would LOVE to hear from any PBDS friends who might be in the city.

'88

Stephanie Halimi, a French native, has been living in France for the past five years. She is a production coordinator for Warner Brothers European Productions and travels throughout Europe. The company produces local language films in Spain, Italy, Germany, France, and the United Kingdom. On the side Stephanie also acts, and she co-founded a theater company called The Behoovers which has received excellent reviews. After graduating from college in France, she did post graduate work at Florida Atlantic University and the University of Miami. She has a Masters in Marketing and Communications and a MFA in Theater (acting).

'90

Anthony (Tony) Owen was married to Monique O'Neill on March 20, 2005, in Melbourne, Australia. Following a church ceremony, the reception was held at Rippon Lea, a National Trust property from the 1800's, with wonderful gardens. Fifty family and friends traveled to Australia to attend the wedding. The weather was perfect, and most attendees fell in love with the Land Down Under. Tony is working for Toyota Motor Sales, USA, in California.

Tony and Monique Owen

'92

Holly Noelle Casale was married to Derek Neil Condra on Saturday, May 14, 2005, at St. Edwards Catholic Church.

Holly's sister, Jennifer Andio '89, was matron of honor and Ashley Reese '92, was a bridesmaid. Holly graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in marketing and merchandising from Florida State University. They are living near Atlanta, where Holly is a buyer for US HealthWorks.

Caroline Koons has announced her engagement to Thomas Forrest. Caroline earned an undergraduate degree from The School of The Art Institute of Chicago and undergraduate and graduate degrees in architecture from Pratt Institute in New York. She is an architectural designer at Schwab, Twitty & Hanser Architectural Group, Inc. A February wedding is planned.

'95

Stefanie Cove lives and works in Washington, DC, where she was recently promoted to Director of Private Dining and Catering for Red Sage Restaurant, a member of the Star Restaurant Group. She is a graduate of Syracuse University with a B.S. in Hospitality Management.

'97

Allison Henkel graduated from the University of Southern California with a degree in Business Administration and a minor in Gender studies. During college, she served as the executive director of Women and Youth Supporting Each Other. WYSe is a curriculum based mentorship and community service organization for high school girls. She currently lives and works in Philadelphia, where she is a Teach for America Corps member, teaching math to eighth, ninth, and eleventh grade students at one of the country's only all female public schools. Allison is also pursuing a Master's in education from St. Joseph's University. She will graduate in 2006.

'98

Tiffany Marks earned a BA from Emory College at Emory University's 160th commencement in Atlanta.

Alumni Notes

Continued from previous page

Alex Russell has joined the faculty at PBDS as a sports and history teacher. He graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University in Delaware, OH, with a BA in history and a minor in Philosophy.

Lindsay Roshkind graduated Cum Laude from George Washington University School of Business at the University's 77th commencement in Washington, D.C. She is a freshman at the University of Florida School of Law in Gainesville.

'01

Jessica Scorpio is currently in her 2nd year at Carleton University in Ottawa, Canada and has had the honor of receiving the prestigious National In-course Millennium Scholarship for academic excellence and community involvement. She is working towards her Honours Political Science degree with a concentration in International Relations and a minor in Business and Co-op. She has been re-elected Vice-President of the University Debating Society and is actively planning the Canadian Nationals University Debating Tournament and is the Co-Tournament Director of Xerxes Annual Cup. In her first year, Jessica attended and was recognized for her excellence at Harvard National MUN, Queens MUN, and McGill MUN. She also recently participated in the CIBC Run for the Cure in Ottawa. Over the summer, Jessica taught Technical Business English in Germany and traveled throughout Europe. She has applied for a Page position in the Senate of Canada. Jessica extends her warmest greetings and thanks to all of the teachers at PBDS.

Allie Rosecan is a freshman at Syracuse University, majoring in Fashion Design. She has continued with figure skating and recently passed her senior level moves in a field test. Allie will compete in the Southeastern Regional Figure Skating Championships in Tampa this month.

'02

Francesca Giacco graduated Cum Laude from Westminster School. She worked at the Delaware Art Museum over the summer. Francesca is currently a freshman at Barnard College.

Evan Henkel, a freshman at the University of California Santa Barbara, is interested in pursuing his music. He plays piano and guitar.

Melissa Quinones graduated from the American School of Santo Domingo in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. She is a freshman at the Honors Psychology Program at the University of Ottawa, Canada.

Ashton Reis graduated from Cardinal Newman High School, where he was captain of the varsity lacrosse team for the past two years. Over the summer he attended Tallahassee Community College, where he is currently a freshman.

Brett Rosecan graduated from Saint Andrew's School in Boca Raton, where he played varsity baseball. He was awarded honorable mention in baseball on the Palm Beach Post's All Academic team. He is a freshman at the University of Florida.

Brett Rosecan

Torie Shipley graduated from Hotchkiss School, where she was active in vocal music and musical theater. In the Spring of her senior year she co-directed a full production of "Pippin". Torie is a freshman at Georgetown University School of Foreign Service. Her interests are economics, political science, French, & Italian.

'04

Devon Rosecan is currently a junior at American Heritage School in Boca Raton. Devon was elected to the National Honor Society last Spring, and he is an officer in the school's Key Club. He is active in Venture Scouting, having attended both a high adventure camp in the Grand Tetons over the summer, as well as the National Boy Scout Jamboree at Fort AP Hill in Virginia.

Birth Announcement

Meg Steward Campbell '80, and her husband Christopher are the proud parents of their first child, Ian Ayer Campbell, who was born on December 30, 2004. They all live in Cape Elizabeth, ME. (Sincere apologies for the incorrect spelling in the Summer 2005 edition.)

Andy Conger and his wife Debbie are pleased to announce the birth of Ryan Elliott, who was born on August 12, 2005. They live in Boca Raton with their three year old son, Kyle Claudia Kirk Barto '83, and her husband Stephen are the proud parents of Kirk Walker, who was born at St. Mary's Medical Center in West Palm Beach on May 24, 2005.

Candice Wagner Love '90 and her husband Jason are pleased to announce the birth of Katarina Veronica, who was born on May 19, 2005. The family home is in Arlington, VA.

Jessica (Lazzara) Parr '94 and Robert Parr II '93 are the proud parents of Robert Wesley Parr III, born October 21, 2005

Reunion Class of 1986

Dinah Steward is willing to organize a reunion of the Class of 1986 and wants to know if there is any interest. Please call Rosemary Cove at school 561-655-1188 or rcove@pbds.org to express interest.

In Memorial

Katherine Miller '94 passed away on September 10, 2005, following a six month battle with cancer. At the time of her death she was a student at the Des Moines University School of Osteopathic Medicine. She is the sister of Nicole '89, Andrew '92, and Penelope '98.

Alumni - Send Us Your News
alumni@pbds.org